

| NAME                     | VARIANT NAME    | PLACE OF DEATH                        | OCCUPATION                                   | CAUSE OF DEATH                                 | REGISTER NOTE         | COMMENTS                                       |
|--------------------------|-----------------|---------------------------------------|--|--|-----------------------|--|
| Frank Bernard Bayler     | Bailer          | cor. 7 th and Washington   | school boy                                   |  |                       |  |
| John R. Bayler, Jr.      |                 | cor. 7 th and Washington   | saloon man                                   |  |                       |  |
| Louis Blum               |                 | 221 Exchange                          | saloon keeper                                |  |                       |  |
| George Bluth             |                 | cor. Exchange Ave and 3 rd | mill hand                                    |  |                       | Press Democrat delivery boy                    |
| Willie Bluth             |                 | cor. Exchange Ave and 3 rd | school boy                                   |  |                       | Press Democrat delivery boy                    |
| Joseph Boyes             | Bayes           |                                       | shoe cutter                                  |  | removed to Napa       |  |
| John Hugh Boylan         |                 | 919 5 th st                | farmer                                       | Mitral insufficiency and shock from earthquake |                       |  |
| J. Bratker               | Braker          |                                       |  |  |                       | 1  |
| Rose Hannah Brown        | Rosannah H.     | Eagle                                 | housewife                                    |  |                       |  |
| Yong Bue                 | Biu Yuin        | St Rose                               | merchant                                     |  |                       |  |
| Lillie V. Carter         |                 | 4 th st near B             | jeweler                                      |  | ashes                 |  |
| Wirt Ladore Carter       |                 | 4 th st near B             | jeweler                                      |  | ashes                 |  |
| Robert Biltham Churchill |                 | St Rose                               | hop buyer                                    |  |                       | "with Horst" (a dog?) in newspaper lists       |
| Carrie B. Cnopius        |                 |                                       | housewife                                    |  |                       | died June 21, 1908 in San Francisco            |
| Bernice Pharris Cook     |                 |                                       |  |  |                       | 2  |
| Mary Crose               |                 |                                       | landlady                                     | contusion of right leg                         |                       | 3  |
| Joseph Curry             |                 | 4 th st near D             | bartender                                    |  |                       |  |
| Smith E. Davidson        |                 | 4 th st                    | capitalist                                   |  |                       |  |
| Henry W. Day             | Henry Wayne Day | 4 th st                    | saloon man                                   |  |                       |  |
| Wm. Day                  |                 | 4 th st                    | laborer                                      |  | shipped to Healdsburg |  |
| Charles De Young         |                 |                                       |  |  |                       | 5 year old son                                 |
| Jessie De Young          |                 |                                       |  |  |                       | 30 year old mother                             |
| Violet De Young          |                 |                                       |  |  |                       | 3 year old daughter                            |
| Joseph Domeniconi        |                 | Western                               | hotel keeper                                 |  |                       |  |
| Frank Downing            |                 | 4 th st                    | stable man                                   |  |                       |  |
| Josephine Ely            |                 | Grand                                 | dressmaker                                   |  |                       |  |
| Marshall Ely             |                 | Grand                                 |  |  |                       | son  |
| Milo H. Fish             |                 | 3 rd st and Exchange       | printer                                      |  |                       |  |
| Charlie Fou              |                 | Occidental                            | cook   |  |                       |  |
| E. Geddeni               |                 |                                       |  |  |                       | 1  |
| Phoebe A. Green          |                 | St Rose                               | housewife/stewardess St Rose                 |  |                       |  |
| Mr. Greenwood            |                 | St Rose                               | commercial traveler                          |  |                       | 1  |
| Ceile Heath              | Miss Excelsa    |                                       | vaudeville performer                         |  |                       | mentioned in paper and inquest as with a child |
| Nephi L. Jones           |                 | Grand                                 | electrician/manager Sunset Telephone company |  |                       |  |
| David Kennedy            |                 | Eagle                                 | nurseryman                                   |  |                       |  |
| E. B. Knapp              |                 | St Rose                               | traveling man                                |  |                       |  |

|                        |                |                          |  |                                      |  |
|------------------------|----------------|--------------------------|--|--------------------------------------|--|
| Eli Loeb               |                | 3 rd st       | merchant                               |                                      |  |
| Samuel H. Look         |                | 304 ½ 4 th st | shoe dealer                            |                                      |  |
| Ah Loui                |                | St Rose                  | cook                                   |                                      |  |
| W. H. Mallory          |                |                          | insurance man                          |                                      |  |
| Annie Lawson Manning   |                | Grand                    | housewife, wife of Grand Hotel manager |                                      |  |
| Velma Adelia Manning   |                | Grand                    |  |                                      | baby daughter                                |
| Truman McCord          |                |                          | barkeeper                              | shipped to Healdsburg                |  |
| Lottie J. W. Moke      |                | 418 4 th      | housewife                              |                                      |  |
| Louisa Caroline Moke   |                | 418 4 th      | school girl                            |                                      |  |
| John Murphy            |                | Eagle                    | tanner                                 |                                      |  |
| John Murphy            |                | Eagle                    | shoe maker                             |                                      | Traveling man/St Rose on the newspaper lists |
| Felix Newman           |                | 547 4 th      | druggist                               |                                      |  |
| Charles W. Palm        |                | 741 Humboldt             | traveling man                          | Delirium tremens                     | 4  |
| Matilda Peacock        |                | Occidental               |  |                                      |  |
| William Peacock        |                | Occidental               |  |                                      |  |
| Erasmus M. Pedigo      |                | 5 th and D    | real estate                            | resided at 624 Cherry st             |  |
| Miles Peerman          |                | 312 B st                 | real estate                            |                                      |  |
| Miss Willie F. Reid    |                | 418 4 th      | school teacher                         |                                      |  |
| Robert Richards        |                |                          | stone mason                            | shipped to San Rafael                |  |
| Walter Rinck           | Renck/"Kayser" | Occidental               |  |                                      |  |
| Mr. Robertson          |                |                          | traveling man                          |                                      | 1  |
| Gussie S. Rogers       |                | 3 rd st       | dressmaker                             |                                      |  |
| Fred H. Schieffer      |                | 4 th st       | lineman                                |                                      |  |
| Jacob H. Schlotterback |                | Mendocino State Hospital | laborer                                | exhaustion from acute mental disease | died June 25, 1906                           |
| Charles Shepard        |                | 3 rd st       | student                                |                                      | Press Democrat delivery boy                  |
| Y. Sheraki             |                | St Rose                  | dishwasher                             |                                      |  |
| J. F. Smith            |                |                          | traveling man                          |                                      | 1  |
| Walter H. Smith        |                | St Rose                  | com. Traveler                          |                                      |  |
| Nick Stampfli          | Nick Sanford   |                          |  |                                      | from Los Angeles in newspaper lists          |
| Emma Stebbins          |                | Mendocino State Hospital | housewife at 1220 Ripley               | 'Melancholia with Stupor-Marasmus    | died on August 10, 1907                      |
| America Lillard Thomas |                | 426 Mendocino            |  |                                      | 5  |
| Marshall F. Thrasher   |                | Eagle                    | student                                |                                      |  |
| William Tompkins       |                | 742 Orchard              |  | tetanus                              | 6  |
| Chester Allen Trudgen  |                | 4 th st       | drug clerk                             |                                      |  |
| Thomas B. Ward         |                | 4 th st       | traveling man                          |                                      |  |
| Jonas Wescoatt         |                |                          | surveyor                               |                                      |  |
| Axle William Westran   |                | Eagle                    | tanner                                 |                                      |  |

|               |              |  |           |
|---------------|--------------|--|-----------|
| Young Su Wong | Ton See Wang | St Rose                                      | merchant  |
| Joseph Woods  | Jacob        | 227 4 th st                       | hop buyer |
| Unknown       |              | 4 th st Mrs. Ware's lodging house |           |
| “”            |              |  |           |
| “”            |              |  |           |
| Unknown       |              | 4 th st Eureka lodging house      |           |
| Unknown       |              | 4 th st in Digman's drug store    |           |
| Unknown       |              | 4 th st near Moody's shoe store   |           |
| ??            |              |  |           |

7
 3 listed on original death certificate
 3 listed on original death certificate

no d. c. or register entry #7 on earthquake memorial tombstone

Cause of death listed as "injuries sustained by earthquake" unless otherwise noted
 1 no death certificate, but appears in one or more newspaper list
 2 died July 5, 1907, official cause of death unknown - "never recovered from the effects of the injury"
 3 died April 29 from injuries in collapse of he Piedmont Hotel – April 30, Democrat-Republican
 4 died April 23 from injuries in collapse of Grand Hotel
 5 died July 8, 1906 - 78 year-old - general disability following general neurosis caused by shock
 6 died May 3 – see: <http://comstockhousehistory.blogspot.com/2009/11/death-by-earthquake-lockjaw.html>
 7 Note on all unknowns: "nothing but burnt bones and ashes"